GIVEN*MUSIC WEEK'

Cabinet Officers and Other Prominent Persons Indorse Local Movement.

Names of all cabinet officers, the District Commissioners and others rominent in local and national affairs here appeared on the honorary committee for Washington's "music week," starting next Sunday, as announced today by Organizing Director Robert Lawrence, with Mrs. Harding and Mrs. Coolidge heading the committee as chairman and vice the committee as chairman and vice chairman, respectively.

The committee is as follows: Mrs. Warren G. Harding, chairman; Mrs. Calvin Coolidge vice chairman; Secretary of State Charles Evans Hughes, Secretary of Treasury A. W. Mellon, Secretary of War John W. Weeks, Attorney General H. M. Daugherty, Postmaster General Will H. Hays Secretary General Will H. Hays Secremaster General Will H. Hays, Secre-tary of the Navy Edwin Denby, Sec-retary of the Interior Albert B. Fall, Secretary of Agriculture Henry C. Wallace, Secretary of Commerce Her-hert C. Hoover, Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, Senator J. H. Ball, chairman of the Senate District committee: Representative B. K. Focht chairman of the House District committee; Senator Lawrence C. Phipps chairman of the Senate subcommittee on District appropriations; Represen-tative C. R. Davis, chairman of the House subcommittee on District appropriations; Brig. Gen. Charles Sawyer. Admiral Robert E. Coon Brig. Gen. John A. Lejeune and Dis-trict Commissioners James F. Oyster, Cuno H. Rudolph and C. W. Kutz.

Encouraging Letters. From various sources, according to Piving daily tendering support and en-'I accept with pleasure the invitation to be a member of the honorary commit-tee for Washington music week, although I do not expect to be in Washington for much, if any, of that week. "Music is a great influence for good in this world. Its development should be ancouraged, not only as an aid to art. but for its bearing also on industrial life and the expression it gives to the finer things which make up our private and public welfare. I am always glad to co-operate in a movement of this have so vigorously taken up the mat-ter and are working out plans which will insure success. The names of those active on the committees are a guaranty that the movement will be successful in arousing in the hearts and minds of the residents of the National Capital the deepest interest. so that we confidently look forward to having 'mus'c week' made an annual event."

ENGLAND TO SEND TROOPS TO AID OF ALLIES IN SILESIA

(Continued from First Page The party motored through the petition.

The party motored through the petition.

The party motored through the petition.

The party motored through the winding roads of Central Park, down the winding roads German attack, although regarded as very serious, is not considered in French official circles as a casus belli, as it was carried out by irregular forces. It is thought here, from information received from Oppeln, that the German officials are winking at the action of the volunteers if they are not actually encouraging it, but confidence is expressed in the good faith of Chancellor Wirth. in the good faith of Chancellor Wirth, who is regarded as sincerely endenv-oring to prevent trouble. The allied representatives in Berlin will call on Dr. Wirth today and ask him to close the Silesian frontier and him to close the Silesian frontier and take all possible steps to prevent intervention by other volunteer forces. It is not expected in official circles here that the conference between Premier Briand and Mr. Lloyd George, the British prime minister, at Boulogne will occu, before the end of the week. This is because Premier Briand's presence will be necessary at and's presence will be necessary at the sessions of the senate, to follow debate in the chamber of deputies on the government's foreign policy. The senate, it is forecast, will discuss the London agreement for the settlement consideration of appropriations for reconstruction work with the Germans in connection with they attacked in two columns, one Former President Menocal of Cuba, Lowietsko and the other from who arrived here yesterday, will stand pitz and Gogolin. Krappitz and Gogolin.

The Poles left their position hurriedly. Near Gogolin four field guns and eight machine guns and 150 rifles were captured.

The correspondent said the Germans were reinforcing their positions and intended to continue the attack Sunday evening.

A dispatch to the London Times from Oppeln says incessant fighting District Court of Appeals Exbetween Polish insurgents and Ger-mans in the Rosenberg, Kreuzburg, Ratibor and Krappitz areas. This dis-

CECIL IN LEAGUE PLEA.

patch was dated Saturday

LONDON. May 22.—Lord Robert Cecil, in a letter to the London Times, argues that the fact that America declines to have anything to do with the league of nations, directly or indirectly, ought not to change the British attitude toward the league. He contends that the league is not the outcome of unpractical idealism, but is a sober, serious attempt to safeguard mankind from a repetition of the horrors of the late war, than which no more rigidly practical observed out of respect for the Chief Justice. The recent and unexpected death of Edward Douglas White, Chief Justice of the United States, causes us profound sorrow. It is hard to realize that never again in this life shall we be privileged to look into his genial face or feel the charm of his presence. Deeply learned in the late war, than which no more rigidly practical observed out of respect for the Chief Justice. The recent and unexpected death of Edward Douglas White, Chief Justice of the United States, causes us profound sorrow. It is hard to realize that never again in this life public opinion, and, realizing this, I am glad that such bodies as the Academy of Political Science, the United States Chamber of Commerce, the United States Chamber of Commerce, the United States Chamber of Commerce, and the contends that the league is not shall we be privileged to look into his genial face or feel the charm of his presence. Deeply learned in the late war, than any say to you, this sort of work is already progressing under executive orders within the determing conditions. In all the deeply article to the Chief Justice.

The recent and unexpected death of the United States, causes us profound sorrow. It is hard to realize that never again in this life busice. The contends the league of the United States Chamber of Commerce, the United States Chamber of the charm of the full war to the charm of the contends the

The audience is requested to enter the grounds by way of the west gate on Connecticut avenue, just opposite the McClellan statue. At California street. Members of the cast and chorus will enter at the south gate, on Florida avenue between 19th street and Connecticut avenue. The afternoon performance will commence promptly at 4:45 and the evening performance at 9 o'clock. Tickets for both performances are on 'sale at the New Willard newsstand and at Community Service, 918 10th st.

A few boxes are still left and may be had of Mrs. James Carroll Frazer, chairman of the Community Service on pageantry and the drama, and of Mrs. Marie Moore Forrest, executive secretary of Community artics and director of the definition of the court and that, out of respect to his memory, the court of the blood through the body amounts to the astonishing.

Heart he desired the court to merit the esteem of all our citizens on account of the justice which it administered and the courage with which it defended the right. His since a warrant for her arrest had been issued six months ago, Mrs. Pauline J. Woolery, twenty-four years old. of 229 10th street north-cast, was arrested here yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Woolery is wanted by the authorities of Ellicott City, Md., where, it is ordered that this appreciation of his character be spread upon the journal of this court and that, out of respect to his memory, the court of the defended the right. His said, she married Woolery, the police allege, married Woolery in 1915, but ever lived with him. Shortly after wool-ry enlisted, it is aid, she married Basema and left him is a few mounts are counted to the second the courage with the courage wi

Leader of the Upper

First photograph to reach this country of Adelbert Korfanty, leader of the Polish insurgents in Upper Silesia. Korfanty was Polish plebiscite comwhen the recent vote was

'IT MUST NOT BE AGAIN," PRESIDENT SAYS, WHILE WAR DEAD GET TRIBUTE

(Continued from First Page.)

There was another moment of si-lence. It was as if the great piers. bustling with life as men went forth to death, had been turned to a tomb after the return of those who had after the return of those who had and Army officials of high rank, returned to Manhattan, where he was scheduled to address the Academy of Political Science at its luncheon in the traffic during January and February of this year.

Soft was tried out clearly before us, week' was tried out clearly before us, washington was a little slow in organizing the movement and I am glad that the efficient committees in charge have so vigorousiy taken up the matter and are working out plans which will insure success. The new to the date of the properties and their wives for March and April of this year considerably lower than for the same months of 1920, it was heavier than the traffic during January and February of this year.

A steady reduction in the force of war workers in Washington is believed to be the biggest factor in the reduction of street car traffic, especially in the Potomac Park, served largely by the Capital Traction Company.

Saluted by all manner of craft as the Mayflower steamed up the Hudson to the same months of 1920, it was heavier than for the same months of 1920, it was heavier than the traffic during January and February of this year.

A steady reduction in the force of war workers in Washington is believed to be the biggest factor in the reduction of street car traffic, especially in the Potomac Park, served largely by the Capital Traction Company.

Saluted by all manner of craft as the Mayflower steamed up the Hudson the force of craft as the Mayflower steamed up the Hudson the force of war workers in Washington is believed to be the biggest factor in the reduction of street car traffic, especially in the Potomac Park, served largely by the Capital Traction Company. Saluted by all manner of craft as the Mayflower steamed up the Hudson to her anchorage in the center of the great line of destroyers that arrived here lest week from the service of the s rived here last week from the south. President Harding received another salute of twenty-one guns as he put off in the yacht's barge for the naval land-

Preceded by a military guard, steelwith bared head the President and his party trod softly down the great white walled shed, with coffins to right, coffins to left and coffins ahead. Finally the party passed into one section holding itself nearly a thousand bodies. It was in this section that the ceremony took place. As the President stepped onto the latform a military band struck up "The Star Spangled Banner."

Receives Mayor Hylan.

Before President Harding landed he received Mayor Hylan aboard the May-flower. They chatted for several min-utes, during which the President disthe police department launch which had come out to the Mayflower.
"I've heard of 'P. D. Q.' and its mean-

RESOLUTION ADOPTED ON DEATH OF JUSTICE

presses Regret and Adjourns which no more rigidly practical object was conceivable.

I aw, he possessed a breadth of vision and a power of logical analysis that were marvelous. Long after his mortal remains shall have mingled with the counsels mill as the counsels mill as the counsels and business organizations generally are studying and discussing these questions. Final rehearsals were held today for the presentations of Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream." to be given tomorrow afternoon and night at the Dean estate, Connecticut and Florida avenues, by Community Service.

The audience is requested to enter the grounds by way of the west gate, on Connecticut avenue on Connecticut avenue.

of the Upper Silesian Insurrection STREET CAR TRAVEL SHOWING DECREASE

> Decline of 600,000 Fares on Capital Traction in April, Report States.

Utilities Commission by the compa

The reduction in traffic has hit the Capital Traction Company harder han it has the lines of the Washington Railway and Electric Company and its subsidiaries.

tion Company hauled 8,737,734 people. These figures reveal a falling off of approximately 600,000 passengers.

system for that month of 7,535,229 These figures reveal a reduction of On the coffin decorated by presidential hand was a plate chronicling the fact that Joseph Guyton of Evart. Mich., a private in Company I of the 126th United States Infantry, had given his life for his country on May 24, 1918, in the Gildwilder sector in Alsace. passengers, while in March of this year the company's statement shows After the ceremony President 8,413.354 passengers.
Harding, accompanied by Mrs. Harding, several senators and their wives and Army officials of high rank, returned to Manhattan, where he was months of 1920, it was heavier than the same months of

At the dock were hundreds of bluejackets and police, surrounding the motor cars assembled there for the party.

Met by Legion's Head.

President and Mrs. Harding were met at the pier by Col. F. W. Galbraith, national commander of the American eLgion.

Month of the dock were hundreds of blueing to-operate now on a lower fare.
It was generally conceded at the District building today that the Utilities Commission has the right to reopen the fare question at this time.
George E. Hamilton, president of the Capital Traction, said today he preferred not to discuss the fare question until the federation has filed its petition.

great Army piers in Hoboken at POLITICAL SCIENCE ACADEMY HEARS

utes, during which the President displayed interest in the marine strike. Mr. Harding also told the mayor he hoped soon to come to New York again that he might see a ball game here.

Mrs. Harding became interested in the inscription "P. D." on the bow of the inscription to the evils and effecting the reform of many deficiencies in the present system. But the budget program will not do everything. There must still be much and continuing effort to keep expenses down, to insure full value for every dollar of the taypayer's money the government.

ENTHUSIASTIC ROOTERS AT HIGH SCHOOL COMPETITIVE DRILL AMERICANS SCORE

CENTRAL BOYS OPEN HIGH SCHOOL DRILL

Cheering Throng Greets the Cadets in Annual Competition at Ball Park.

When asked who'll bring the "bacon" Prof. Maurer, soft and breezy, Replied, "I guess old Central will, But then it won't be easy.

"For even though our complement In size is almost double. The Blue and White is quite prepared For unexpected trouble.

The Tech boys, with their gallant five,
Are always in the running,
While Eastern's two, and Junior's on
Are mighty shrewd and cunning.

The Western youths can drill some And Business, to our sorrow.

Twenty-one six-squad companies and officers, are participating in the contest this year. Central has nine companies, Tech five, Eastern two, This was Central's day at the drill.

Five of the school's companies—F.

A. M. K and G—executed the thirty—five commands prescribed for them this morning at the same school, and three others are scheduled to give their exhibition this afternoon. They are Companies, F and L, also will drill this afternoon.

Robert A. Maurer, principal of G. this morning. A and M. in command of Capts. P. J. Piel and F. A. Sever-

Sanitary Unit in Evidence. The newly organized sanitary unit of the cadet corps of Tech High School erected in the left field of the ball park today a large first-aid tent, which is in charge of Dr. Wallace M. Yater, an assistant military instructor needing it.

High Army and Navy and government officials will attend the drill tomorrow afternoon, when the judges will announce the winning company and bestow honors upon its officers school authorities today to insure it against theft. When the token was first given to school officials, more than twenty years ago, its value was estimated at $1.500.

Today school officials had the medal

Atlas-Encyclopedia.

are up-to-date and authentic.

U. S. GIVES 50,000 LESS THAN LIVING

tion paid for government service and the factors that go to make up the Representative Black at this point referred to the provision in the Sterling-Lehlbach bill which provides that in a reclassification there shall be no interference with the present pay of an employe which may be greater than the amount that would be paid for work of similar character under the proposed pay any extern the be paid for work of similar character under the proposed new system. He said that if an employe were placed in a grade where the compensation would be less than the amount he is now receiving, his salary should be cut so that he would stand upon an equal footing with the other members of that group.

of that group Must Be No Discrepancies.

No other plan would be in line with standardization of government work is the opinion of Representative Black, who also expressed the view that the joint committee could not afford to go Cheered by more than 1,000 leather- before Congress with the recommenunged Centralites, Company F of dation which would permit of any dis lunged Centralites, Company F or dation which would permit of any discrepancies, companded by Capt. C. H. Porter, marched into the Capt. C. H. Porter, marched into the American League ball park shortly entitled to receive under the proposed discrepancy or injustice thought to have before 9 o'clock this morning, and classification.

formally opened the thirty-fourth annual competitive drill of the Washington High School Cadet Corps. The event, considered the greatest of the school year in the District, will be brought to a close late tomorrow afternoon, when the victorious company is to be determined by three Army judges—Majs. John B. Richardarny judges—Majs. John B. Richardson, Thurston Hughes and James A. Thio. Mr. Steward expressed the opinion zation process. ural causes, could be dropped, while appointments could be made to new positions calling for performance of practically the same duties at the standard rates of pay specified under

Robert A. Maurer, principal of Central, was among those on the sidelines today rooting for the "blue and white" companies. of the Central companies drilling witness said the provision in some of the morning. A and M, in command the classification bills now pending in Congress providing for mandatory dismissal when employes are in-efficient undoubtedly is a wise meas-ure. He expressed the view that pro-Sterling-Lehlbach bill over any other introduced in Congress. He urged the creation of a permaagency after the classifications and allocations have been made, be-selected as the official reviewing Allison Nailor Medal Insured. Increase in value of the Allison Nailor medal, which will be presentof the school military organization. ed to the captain of the victorious Treatment will be administered to High School Cadet company tomorspectators as well as to the cadets row in the competitive drill, caused school authorities today to insure it and men.

Prior to awarding the prize flag to the victorious company and the valuof the prize company is permitted able Allison Nailor medal to the captain, the entire cadet brigade will pass until his graduation, when he will be in review of Maj. Gen. John A. Lejeune, commandant of the United possession by the Washington Chamstates Marine Corps, who has been ber of Commerce.

It Is Amazing-Yet True

cal, racial, religious, linguistic and statistical. THE STAR'S NEW MAP OF THE WORLD TODAY AND OF THE UNITED STATES is a veritable

On a small easily handled sheet of 28x42 inches are given over 10,000 references, geographical, politi-

Places and facts are easily found and the facts

Come to The Star Office and inspect this new

The price to readers of The Star is 75 cents map with its instantaneous finder attachment.

WAGE, SAYS UNION purchasing power of a dollar. Mr. Steward said if a dependable classi-fication is established, it would be possible to take standard government reports on the cost of living and de-the trise wages so that there would be holes. direct relation between compensatee, losing five of the first six British Stars Score. Among the leading English players T. D. Armour. Lothianburn, defeated H. R. Orr of Prestwick, St. Nicholas, 4 and 2. C. C. Aylmer of Ranelagh, who de-feated Dr. Paul Hunter of Los An-geles in Saturday's team match, won R. B. Foster of Coombe Hill, 3 and 1. Harold Hilton, former British amaof Aberdovey, 5 and 4.

American Team Surprises LONDON, May 23.—The London Times' correspondent at Hoylake, in lamenting the poor display made by the British golfers in Saturday's match, adds that this does not detract from the fine play of the Amer-

Urges Board of Appeals. It is reasonable to suppose, Mr. Fitzgerald said, that mistakes will be made in the classification and alloca-tion work, and for this reason it is hoped there will be a permanent agency to consider appeals and also question of adjusting salaries so that there might be maintained constant definite relations between compensation and the cost of living.

The witness urged the joint committee to use its best efforts to bring about classification legislation at the ten Officers Testify.

winn, vice president of the Federa' i inployes' Union, No. 2, spoke on beauti of the cierical service of motions as well as dismissals should be handled by an impartial agency. Following Mr. Steward, John Fitz-gerald of New York, first vice presi-with the report of the joint congresgenerally speaking were satisfied with the report of the joint congres-Following and representing dent of the National Federation of Sederal Employes, and representing The great majority of the employes desire specific classification, he said, that the selection of the selection of the majority of the employes desire specific classification, he said, that is so that they will know just what is expected of them, and also they de-Sterling-Leblbach bill over any other classification measure that has been sire a central agency for the allocation of the employes and to which they may make appeals. A central appeal agency. Mr. Quinn said, would make for contentment in the service. Often a feeling exists, he said, that an administrative officer is unfair. "I believe there is little intentional unfairness on the part of administra-tive officials." said Mr. Quinn. "It ould be contrary to common sense ple his own organization by such methods. Nevertheless, there are cases which should be carried to a reviewing agency."

Mr. Quinn laid stress also upon the advisability of providing for increases of pay in the various grades. Such a system, he said, would be a great encouragement to the employes. S. Tyson Kinsell of Philadelphia, sixth vice president of the National Federation of Federal Employes. strongly urged upon the committee the advisability of including in the proposed reclassification all the fedcolumbia. The same inequalities in pay and in duties are found in the service outside the District, he said. He, too, advocated the establishment

Worth, Tex., on Saturday, June 4, to ARREST HARDING 'ENEMY. aid the effort to have mineral oils aid the effort to have mineral oils, hides, and vegetable ells placed in the permanent tariff bill, according to announcement today by John H. Kirby, president of the asociation. The states of Texas, Louisiana. Arkansas. Oklahoma. Arizona and New Mexico are expected to have delegates at this meeting, it was asserted. The Fort Worth congress is the beginning of a series of similar meetings to be neld in the states throughout the south for upbuilding the sent announcement today by John H. Kirby, president of the association. The states of Texas, Louisian, Arkansas. Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico are expected to have delegates at this meeting, it was asserted. The Fort Worth congress is the beginning of a series of similar meetings to be neld in the states throughout the south for upbuilding the sentence of the southern Tariu headquarters of the Southern Tariu headquarters of the Southern Tariu headquarters of the Southern Tariu with Tarius and post office and the had fallen to the official guests and the ball in the cevening.

LITTLE ROCK. Ark., May 23.—
John C. Marsh, a Memphis secret service agent, arrived here last night with B. G. Morgan, arrested at Hot Springs, in connection with recent threatening letters written to President.

FIRE WIPES OUT TOWN.

NASHVILLE. Tenn., May 23.—
A telephone from Huddleston, Tenn., says the business district of Trezevant, in the business district of Trezevant, in the property for protection with recent threatening in faller in the official guests and the ball in the official guests and the ball in the official guests and the ball in the cevening.

FIRE WIPES OUT TOWN.

NASHVILLE. Tenn., May 23.—
A telephone from Huddleston, Tenn., says the business district of Trezevant, in the business district of Trezevant, in the property for protection with recent threatening in fallers are the property of the southern and th

IN BRITISH GOLF

Take Six of Their Seven

First-Round Matches in Amateur Tourney.

By the Associated Press.

HOYLAKE, May 28.—J. Wood Platt of Philadelphia injured his right knee in a fall down a flight of stairs last night, and will be unable to play in the amateur championship tourna-ment. His injuries were so severe as to require stitches and setting in splints. Platt was paired with Maj. H. A. Boyd of Port Marnock, in the first round.

He appeared at the links today

HOYLAKE, England, May 23.

American golfers made a fine start i the British amateur championship tourney this morning. They took part in seven matches and won all but one of them. W. L. Thompson.

who was defeated, was not on the American team proper. F. C. Wright was the only winning Yankee who

Jesse Guilford of the United States who has been residing in England for a number of years, drew byes in the Results of Matches.

R. G. O. Hutchinson of the Royal and Ancient scratched.

P. Hunt of Texas defeated A. C was sent to the final green.

second round tomorrow.

Out of Big Golf Event

Platt Injured in Fall;

Mrs. Phillips, widow of Robert A. Phillips, died suddenly at her home, 1707 21st street, yesterday morn-ing, of cerebral hemorrhage. Funeral services will be conducted at the residence at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, followed by services at St. Paul's Church, 15th and V streets, at 9:30 o'clock. Interment will be in Oak Hill o'clock. Interment will be in Oak Hill cemetery.

Until a few hours before her death Mrs. Fhillips, who was seventy-two years old, was in the best of health and very active, despite her years. She died several hours after being stricken. A daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Barbour of Georgetown. Mrs. Phillips had spent her entire life in Washington and in earlier years was prominently identified with musical circles, having been one of the most accomplished pianists of the city. She complished pianists of the city. was also possessed of a rich soprano

She was an alumna of Georgetown Visitation Convent and a member of the Friday Morning Music Club and the board of lady managers of the George Washington University Hospital.

Surviving her are four children, Mrs. Sherman E. Burroughs of Manchester, N. H.; Mrs. Roy L. Neuhauser, Robert H. and Asa E. Phillips, all of this city.

REACH VITAL POIN

Relations With Mexico and Japan at Stake in Negoteam and M. Payton, an American. tiations Under Way.

first round. They will play in the BY DAVID LAWRENCE. Two delicate situations in international affairs, involving future relations between the United States and Mexico on the one hand and the United States and Japan on the other, have progressed and Japan on the other, have progressed Charles (Chick) Evans of Chicago defeated D. S. Crowther of Coombe Francis Ouimet of Boston defeated C. E. Dick of the Royal Liverpool Club, 3 and 2. Ouimet outdrove his rival by fifty yards.

F. J. Wright of Boston defeated w.
W. Seymour of Nordth Foreland, 1 up.
Robert T. (Bobby) Jones of Atlanta defeated G. C. Manford of Luffners avoided so that a satisfactory settleis but the first of the "red, white and defeated G. C. Manford of Luffness New, 3 and 2. Jones drove brilliantly and made neat recoveries to have two holes he apparently had lost.

W. C. Fownes, jr., of Pittsburgh had a walkover, owing to the fact that ment can be reached. Optimism as to the clearing up of the two disputes is plainly reflected here, but the job ahead of Secretary Hughes in negotiating with the Obregon government on the question of recognition is one on which the Wilson administration was able to make little headway. This was not because of the way the thing was handled, for the Harding Crichton of Wallazy, 3 and 1.

R. R. Burton of Mid-Surrey, defeated W. L. Thompson, American, 3 and 1. Thompson was off color from regime has asked for practically the same thing from Mexico, but because the Mexican authorities believed they could get better terms from the republi cans than from the democrats.

Playing Careful Game.

Mexico is playing a careful game—no pressure has been exerted to obtain recognition from the United first of these is the one having es-States, no outward effort has been made that could be denounced by the anti-American elements in Mexico as laminary and practical military in attempt to curry favor with the United States. On the other hand, President Obregon needs the recognition of the United States are sense will be aligned from the states of the United States are sense will be aligned from the states of the nition of the United States, because it means recognition by the other governments of the world. It means deconomic stimulus and a funding of the Plattsburg training camp idea.

Mexico's external and internal debt Physically fit male citizens who have through foreign loans.

To put the question on a material who are not over thirty-five years of basis, however, would only give age are eligible to attend the "red" President Obregon's enemies a chance to start a revolution against him. The United States, on the other hand.

form of an agreement, it is confidently expected that a definite promise will be given by the Mexican govern-ment to treat Americans and their will be inevitably or else recognition icate from a schoolmaster, clergy man, priest or rabbi testifying to his good moral character.

The "red" course includes elementary and uniform training and instruction for all candidates, which will include the duties of the private in the school of the soldier. be simply a treaty which will make it possible for two neighboring countries to continue in peaceful relation

Requests Not Unreasonable. The requests of the United States that retroactive articles of the Mexi earliest time possible, pointing out can constitution shall be eliminate that the bonus system now in effect so as to preserve American propert ate with Obregon. Summerlin is charge d'affaires of the American embassy in Mexico City and is an intimate friend of Undersecrtary Fletcher, under whom he has served in various diplomatic posts. Summerlin has the confidence of the Department of State to an unusual degree and will have been all who and will handle the negotiations in person. Door Still Open Over Yap. As for the controversy with Japan over the Island of Yap matters are mov ing along satisfactorily for our government. The Japanese have by no means closed the door against discussion; in-deed, they have not assumed a definite position. The negotiations have been carried on informally and orally, so that may be reduced to writing without the necessity of a prolonged period of note writing. The Yap question is before the supreme council, but if the United States and Japan could reach a direct agree ment it would be far more satisfactor; to Japan than to be in the position of being required to obey a request from the supreme council to give back something previously awarded her. The way out, of course, is an agreement to inter-nationalize the Island of Yap so that it does not belong either to the United States or Japan, but to all the powers equally and governed by an international mmission which would sateguard all Japan is not particularly disturbed over the disposition of Yap-or rather she would not be if Japanese-American relations showed signs of get-ting better. The negotiations which have been carried on both here and in Tokio indicate clearly to the Japanese that the Harding adminis-tration is not going around with a chip on its shoulder, but is anxious He, too, advocated the establishment of agency to review grievances. He said that he favored the Sterling-Lehlbach bills, believing that they come nearer to meeting the needs of the government than the other reclassification bills. The hearing was continued this afternoon.

MEETING ON TARIFF.

MEETING ON TARIFF.

Southern Association Wants Oils and Hides in Bill.

A congress of the Southern Tariff Association will be held at Fort Worth, Tex., on Saturday, June 4, to Declared to Have Written Threatening Letters to President.

MRS. R. A. PHILLIPS DIES. Passes Away Suddenly at the Age MONTH OF TRAINING FOR D.C. YOUNG MEN

Course of Military Instruction at Camp Meade to Begin August 1.

pleted for the enlistment of the Disbe given the opportunity to attend the citizens' military training camp at Free of all charge, young men of the District between the ages of sixteen and thirty-five years, together with men from Virginia and Maryland, will be given a month's training at Camp Meade.

From enthusiasm already manifested among the young men of Washington in the "red course," to be given at Camp Meade, it is evident that the National Capital will turn out a banner enistment.

Col. LeRoy Herron is chairman of the local committee, which includes representatives of Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, District National Guard and other or-ganizations.

Applications eBing Received. Applications for enlistment to the Applications for enlistment to the camp are being received at the Army Medical School, Louisiana avenue and 5th street. Maj. H. B. Montgomery is in charge of the medical examinations, which are easier than the regular Army examinations.

Members of the High School Cadet companies are advised to get in touch with their own leaders as to the advantages of the course. Other sources of information are Brig. Gen. Anton Stephan of the District National Guard, 472 L street; Maj. LeGarde, 472 L street; Maj. William H. Hobson and

The "red course" offered this August is but the first of the "red, white and blue camps," a part of the program of the War Department authorized by the national defense act as amended. Twelve camps will be held throughout the country this summer, the camp for the 3d Corps, Area, which includes the District, to be at Camp Meade.

Divided Into Three Groups. The Army of the United States The Army of the United States contains three components—the Regular Army, the National Guard and the Organized Reserves. During peace the training for the Army, which would be required in case of another national emergency must be obtained through voluntary military service. course will be eligible for enlistment as privates in the Organized Reserves. The courses are an elaboration of course and camp. Prescribed Qualifications

Applicants must have average gencannot afford to accept oral assur-ances. Previous governments in eral intelligence and be of good moral Mexico have given and then ignored character. No educational qualifications in eral intelligence and be of good moral are prescribed or required. Ea odied in a protocol or any other didate must file a certificate from qualified physician stating that his health and strength are adequate for ing and marching, indvidual cooking, care of equipment, personal hygiene, physical development, discipline and morale. A liberal allotment of time is to be devoted to physical training and athletics. There will be no expense in con-nection with attendance at the "red"

camp, the government providing funds for everything necessary, including transportation to and from the camp, uniforms, food, shelter and medica

Personal Belongings Listed. Candidates authorized to attend the camp are to bring with them one piece of hand baggage, containing the wells will have become practically following: Four suits underwear, two valueless. This means that new suits pajamas, six pairs socks, six sources of supply must be opened up, handkerchiefs, four face towels, two n his opinion, promotions rument service under the and unless American interests can secure of senjority. Mr. Fitz-ied that, all things being interests may creep in and obtain control of the petroleum there.

Valueless. This means the depend up, bandkerchiefs, four face towers, the bath towels, shaving and toilet articles. Military clothing and laundry service will be provided at the camp interests may creep in and obtain control of the petroleum there.

Humber has sent George forms and equipment, sweaters, russi-Secretary Hughes has sent George Summerlin to Mexico City to negoticate with Obregon. Summerlin is Candidates will be required to comcamp will be required from all who attend the camp. Discipline-never harsh but always "The meaning of discipline, prompt and cheerful obedience, their importance and development will be an important part of the program."

There will be provided at the camp post exchange facilities, mail service, motion picture programs, band music, athletic competitions, lectures and other forms of diversion. Provision will be made for the reception and enwill be made for the reception and er tertainment of relatives and guests.
Each man will be provided with a comfortable bed and suitable bedding.
Food of substantial quality, well cooked and plantiful, will be served.

50,000 EXPECTED IN FREDERICKSBURG

(Continued from First Page.) into one day, and necessarily it will lap over and take a few hours in the next day. A battalion of the 5th Regiment of Marines, which won glory in the battle of Chateau Thierry, will take part in the parade. The troops will be brought here from Quantico in motor trucks, just as they were transported closed at New Orleans, with the purposes of the celebration, and their support was gained through C. A. Abbey, manager of the Princess Anne Hotel here, which is to be the center of many of the attractions Wednesday, including the reception, the luncheon to the official guests and the ball in the evening.

Travel on the street railway lines of the District is falling off, according to reports filed with the Public

The monthly statement of the Capital Traction Company for April, just filed with the commission, shows that mpahy carried 8,105,668 passengers. The record of the commission show hat for April, 1920, the Capital Trac-

The Washington Railway and Electric Company has not yet submitted its April statement, but the records for March show that company also is hauling fewer people than it did last year, but the reduction has not been as marked as on the other

In March of this year the Washington Railway and Electric hauled 5,568,595 people; the City and Suburban, 1,586,195; the Georgetown and Tenleytown, 133,289, and the Washington Interurban, 44,426. This made a total of 7,332,505 on the Washington Railway and Electric system during March.

In March, 1920, the Washington

W. B. Westlake, president of the Federation of Citizens' Associations said today his organization probably Amid a continuous boom of guns the swift little craft darted with the sion tomorrow its application for a President's party toward the New York shore, where thousands of persons were massed along Riverside drive to greet the nation's chief executive.

At the dock were hundreds of blue-

FINANCE TALK Son, Thurston Hughes and James A.

(Continued from First Page.) effect the abolition of the useless and the co-ordination of the useful.

"But meanwhile we shall, I trust, have a budget system in operation under the law, before the opening of the fiscal year. Establishment of a budget system is the foundation on which reorganisation must be based. It is hardly conceivable, indeed, that a proper budget system could be established and carried on for any considerable time without forcing attention to the evils and effecting the reform of many deficiencies in the present system. But the budget pro-

the taxpayer's money the government GERMANS ROUT POLES.

"I've heard of 'P. D. Q' and its meaning," said Mrs. Harding, "but 'P. D. Is something new."

LONDON. May 23—The first real operation of war during the Polish insurrection in Upper Silesia occurred Saturday evening, when Germans attacked in the Grossteiner forest, according to a dispatch to the London the Control of the Control Stony-Hearted Devotion. "The men who conscientiously and intelligently do this work must not expect to popularize themselves with the office-holders or with the liberal spenders. Even the administration which devotes itself relentlessly to such work must understand that it will lose a good deal of immediate lovely on the part of a certain class.

pensated to it at once in the appre ciation of the public; for the public will not have the deep, immediate interest, or the active concern, which will animate the person who finds will animate the person who misself being pried loose from the purse-strings.

"Nevertheless thankless and un-Out of Respect.

The District Court of Appeals held a special session today and adopted resolutions on the death of Chief Justice White. An adjournment was taken until tomorrow out of respect for the Chief Justice.

"Nevertheless, thankless and ungracious as the task will be for most of those who devote their efforts to it, it must and will be attacked. It is being attacked with all determination. Something can be done even pending the effective inauguration of the budget and the survey of the joint committee, toward bettering conditions. In all the de-

(National Photo Co.)